

BLACK BEAR

1951

CANTON HIGH SCHOOL 1951

Prologue

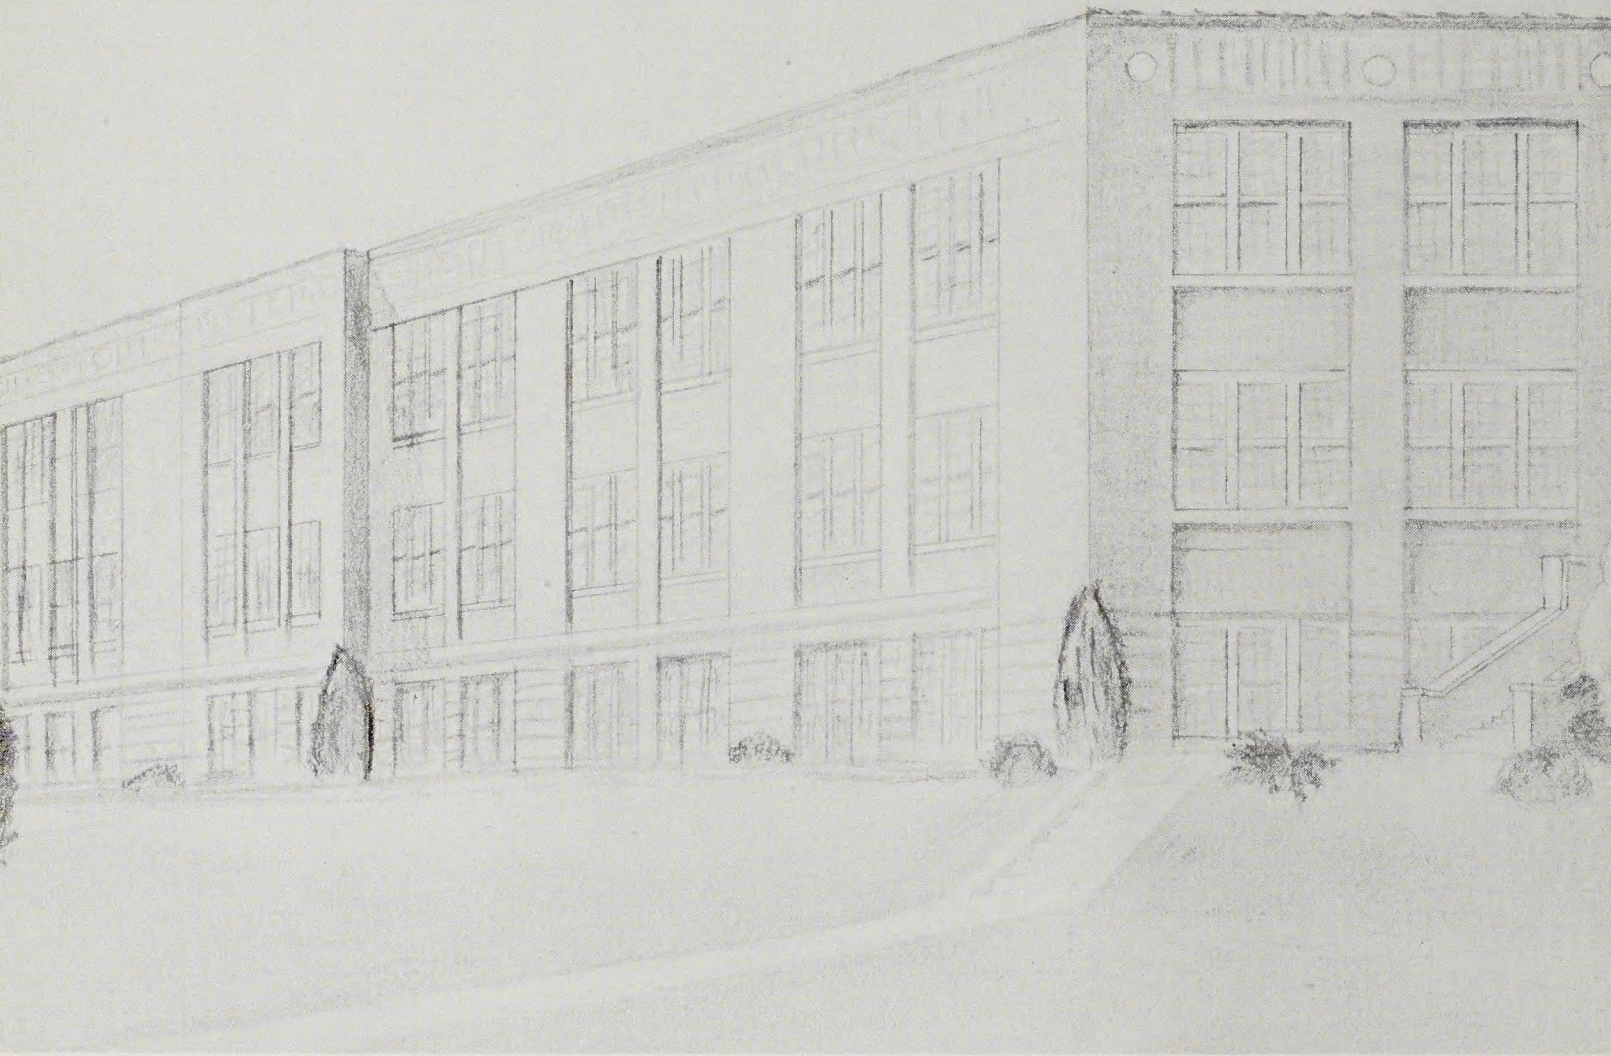

The Annual Staff proudly presents to you
The '51 yearbook with mem'ries so true.

We want you to note as the pages you view,
Students and faculty as their duties they do.
First the pictures of our teachers dear,
Imprinted in our mem'ries oh! so clear.
Next the Seniors with their dignified faces,
Followed by the Juniors who will fill their places.
The merry Soph'mores aren't hard to find,
While the happy Freshmen trail close behind.
Lastly, the Eighth Grade who's given us a chase —
Lest we forget! Once we filled their place

Our thanks go to faculty and students too —
Enjoy The Black Bear like we did givin' it to you.

THE STAFF

Alma Mater

High among Carolina's mountains
'Neath a sky of blue,
Nobly stands old Canton High School,
Loyal, strong, and true.
Alma Mater, hail to thee!
Now thy name we bless.
Hail to thee, old Canton High School,
Hail to C.H.S.

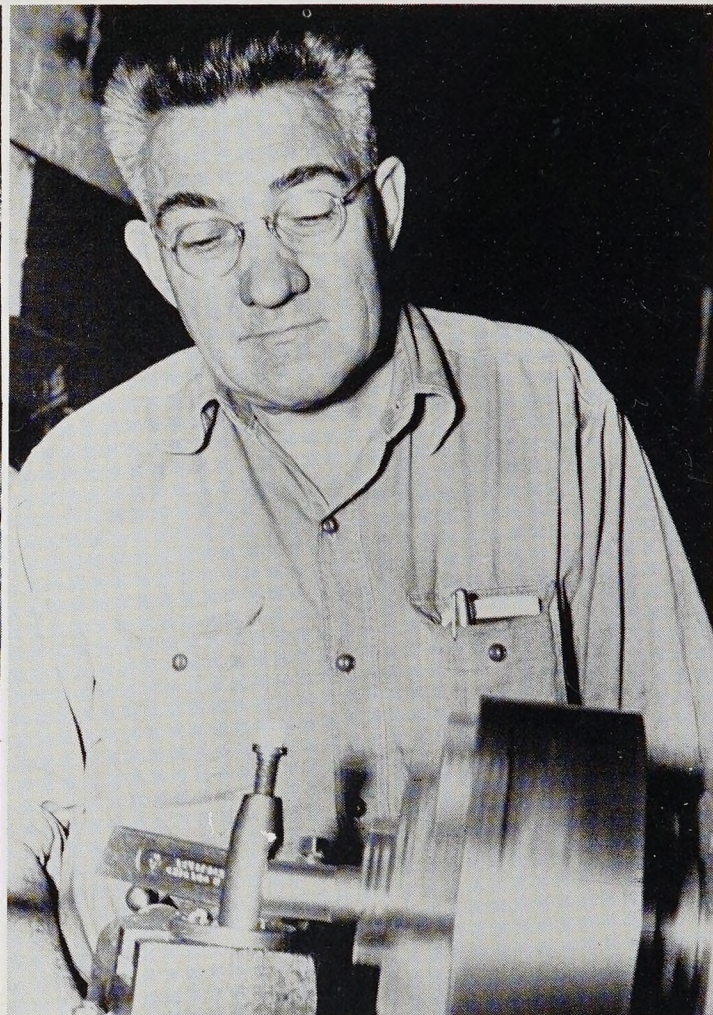

The 1951 BLACK BEAR

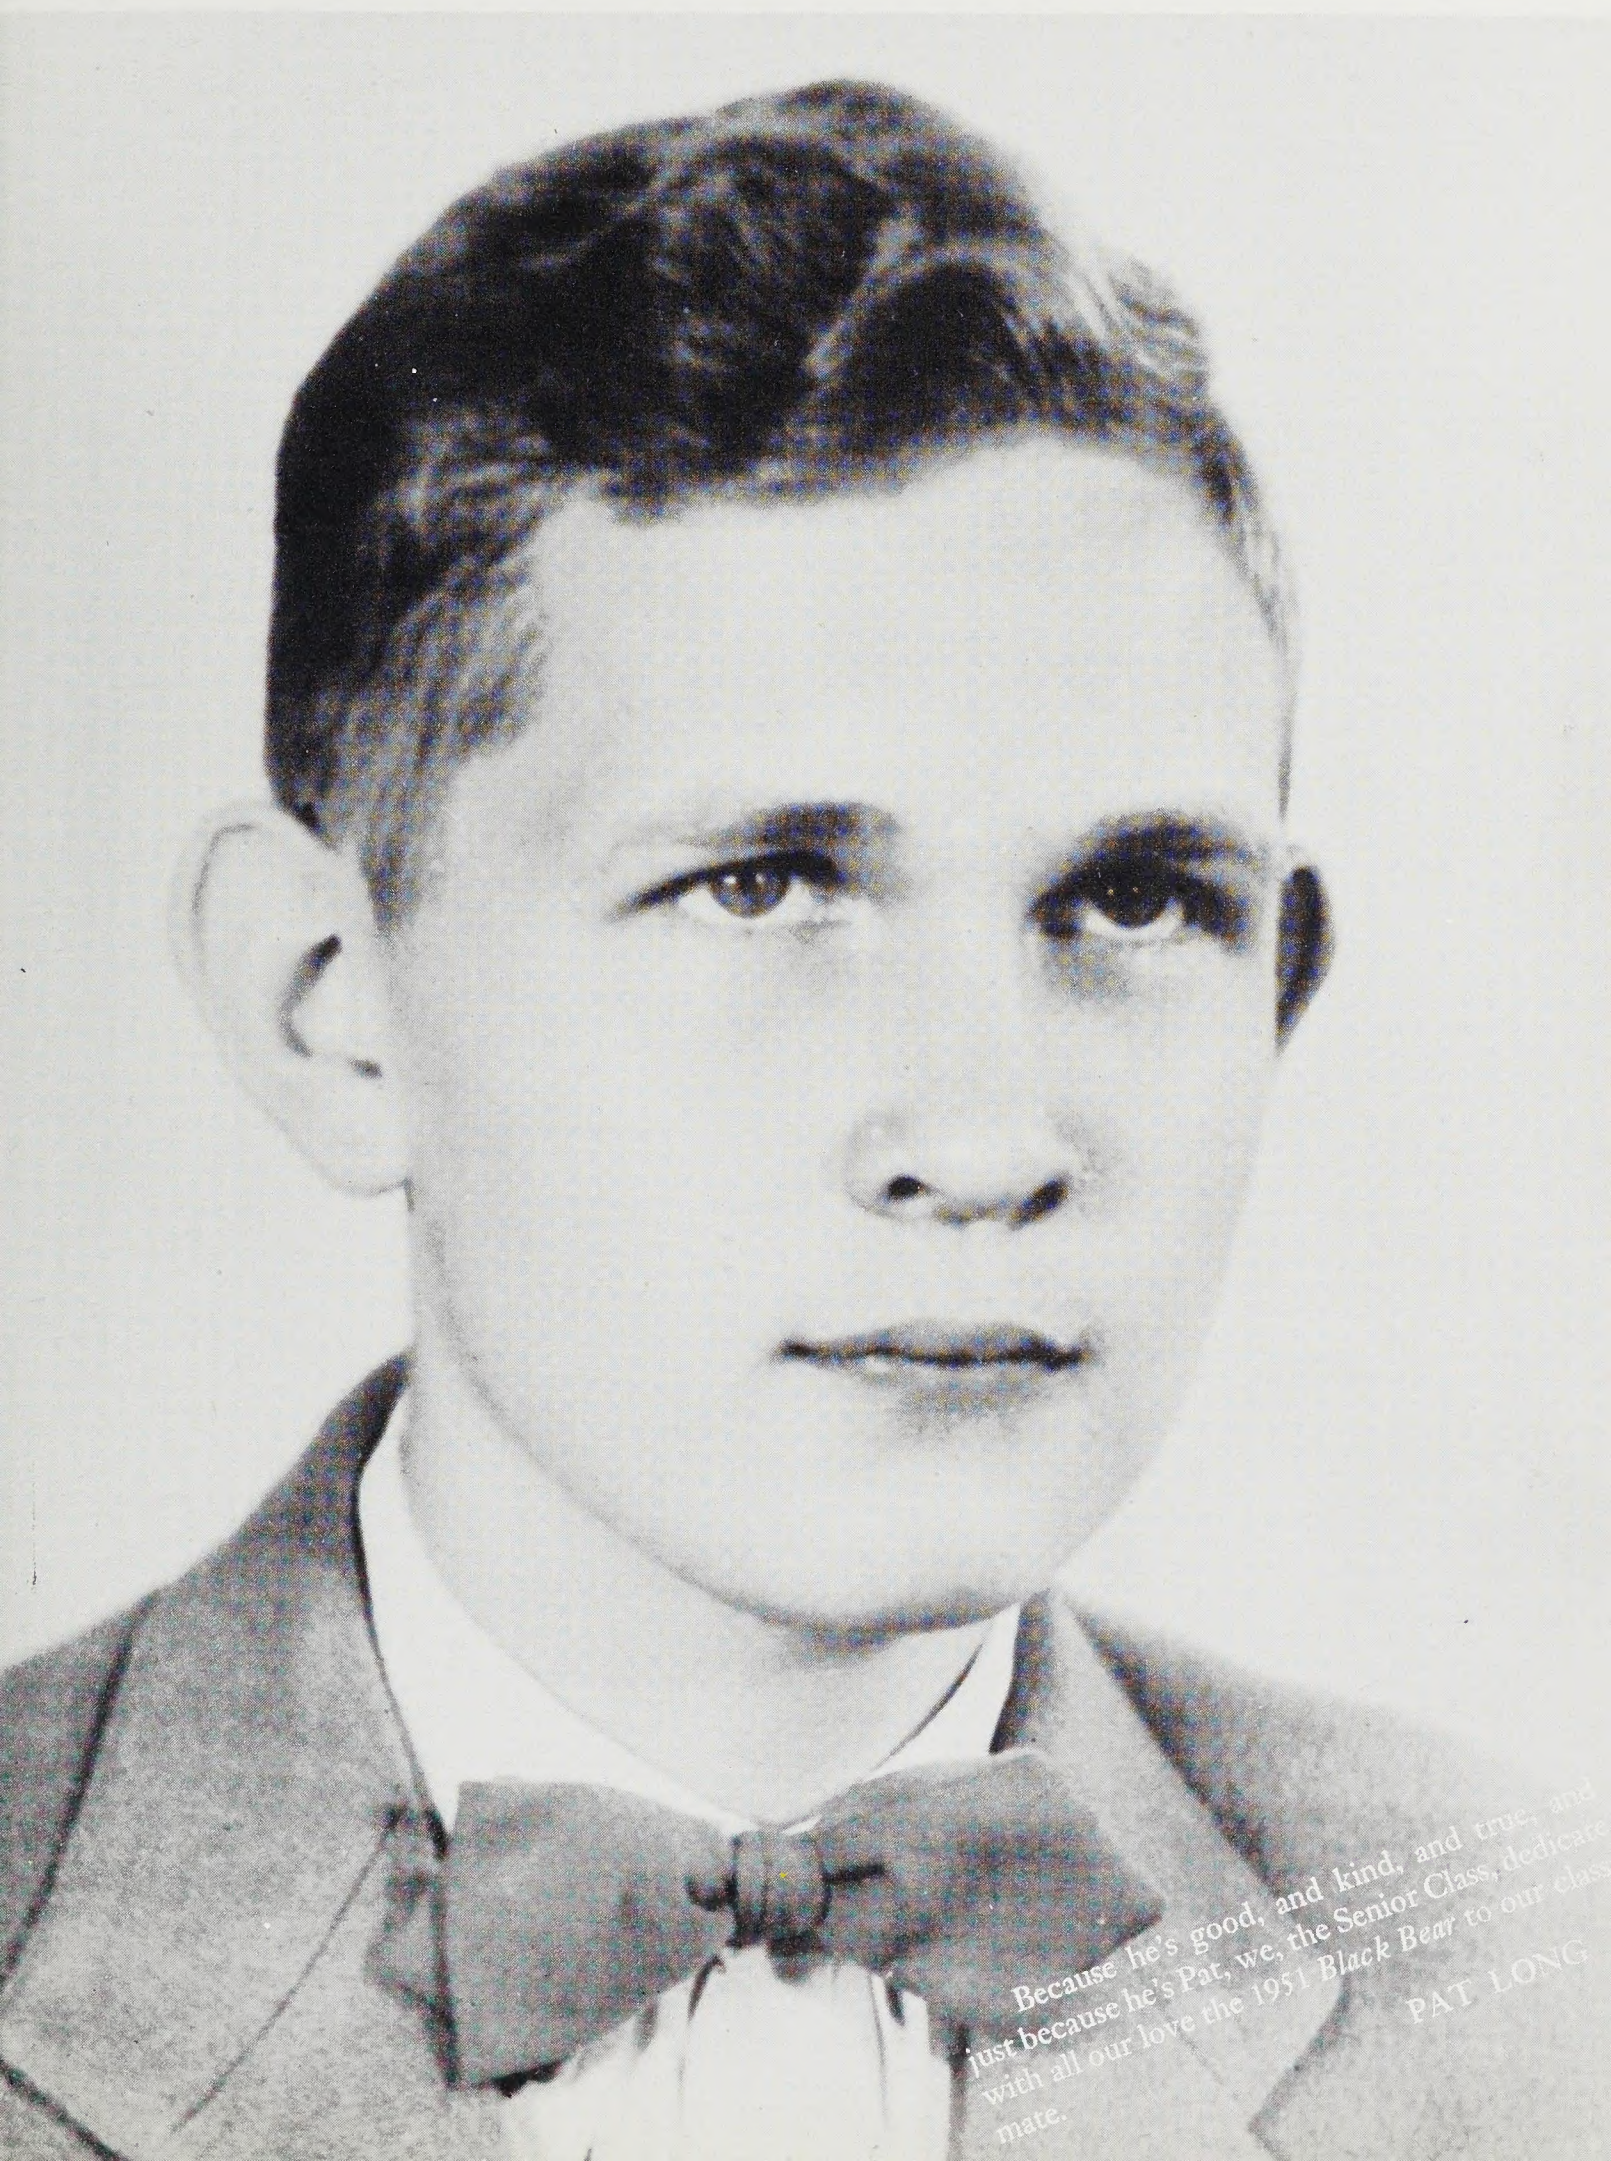

Published annually by the Senior Class
CANTON HIGH SCHOOL, CANTON, NORTH CAROLINA
Drawings by Charles Jacobs, Jr.

Because of their readiness and willingness to serve, the Senior Class of 1951 declares "Doc" Wilson and Herman Bolen the

Unsung Heroes

Dedication

Because he's good, and kind, and true, and just because he's Pat, we, the Senior Class, dedicate with all our love the 1951 Black Bear to our class mate.

Class History

When, on a pleasant morning in September 1946, the class of 1951 descended upon the doorstep of Canton High, both building and teachers reeled from the impact. They've been reeling ever since. 180 talkative, wigglesome pieces of raw material presented themselves as candidates for the long grinding process of becoming finished products.

We rated 10 English teachers during that year. We stumbled and fumbled. Romances budded, blossomed, died. One survived — Gene and Elsie. The year rolled swiftly by. We were becoming only slightly more subdued . . .

We were Freshmen! During this year we boasted an undefeated football team. Some of us even had a friend who had a friend who knew personally some member of the football team! The Junior Dramatics Club was organized, and Mr. Hogan supersaturated us with the thrilling saga of "Enoch Arden". We afforded an even 6 Home Economics teachers.

Our Sophomore year just ambled by. It was during this year that Mack got political minded and was elected vice-president of the Student Council, later to become President and also State President.

Our Junior Year was an eventful one. By sponsoring a turkey dinner, selling gadgets and trinkets, and all but robbing the Haywood County Bank, we earned money to sponsor the Blue Note Prom-Banquet. A successful affair, if we do say so!

The Student Council Convention was a unique occasion, bringing to us students and representatives from all Western North Carolina. Canton High outdid itself in hospitality.

In sports, the Gold Medal Tournament gave our boys an opening to carry off top honors in basketball.

We were still only partially subdued!

Our Senior year came all too soon. The Paper Bowl Game between Canton and Erwin scored another triumph for our Black Bears. The Class Play with all our natural comedians playing natural parts, shook the building. The Junior-Senior Prom was a fitting introduction to commencement activities.

Graduation! With all its happiness and sadness, leaving old friends to make new ones, leaving Canton High to become college students, wives, husbands, to take our places in the world of tomorrow, for we are tomorrow!

Forget Canton High; Canton High forget

Our grandchildren and great grandchildren will hear much reminiscing of Canton High. We shall carry many fond recollections of our class, the most unsubdued class in the history of Canton High.

I PROPHECY
By Dorothy June Gidney

With consideration and thought where I deem it due,
I wish to tell what the future holds for you.

Bill Jenkins was never one to hold a grudge —
In the future I foresee him to be a judge.

Anita will work for the people's welfare,
Old women and children will be in her care.

Jack Kirby doesn't like to figure on a quiz,
But as a taxi driver he'll be a whiz!

As a policeman, Richard will be so fine,
Everybody he will make go between the lines.

As a movie actress, Joan Trull will take her place,
She has the figure, the face, and the grace.

Ruth will be the owner of a store so fine ----
She'll have pianos to play all the time.

Someone a commercial airline pilot should be,
Jack Chapman will be better than you or me.

Walter, I know not what to say about you ----
A machinist? Whatever, you'll see it through!

To Donna her career the boys did try to assign,
But her picture on the calendar will do just fine.

It has been suggested that in Sue's store
Barbara Jean be allowed to manage the floor.

Elsie as a stenographer would be very good,
But as a stewardess, she'd do the best she could.

The owner of the Trailways is at a loss ----
In twenty years I see Paul Raby as boss.

When Mr. Rikard gets tired of his place,
Imagine, in his stead, Maxine's face!

In Charles Stinnett's market you will buy fine meat,
Pork roast, beef roast, and pickled pigs' feet.

Jane Rhodarmer will be cashier in the bank —
For this position she'll have Mr. Lovin to thank.

Way down in Florida by the seashore,
Betty Wilson will operate a stationery store.

For those who roam and wander all around,
Betty Morrow will run the finest boarding place in town.

For a magician to travel and put on a show,
James Parham is the man, I do know.

If your stomach yelps, pray pay it some mind,
Christine's restaurant won't be hard to find.

There are never too many clerks in a store —
Thomasine and Mae Dean will be followed by more.

To upholster furniture requires special taste,
This Joyce Devlin will do without any haste.

To sell furniture is quite a different story,
This is the way Anna Lee will win glory.

In nursing and teaching, Carolyn will earn fame,
If she doesn't do both, it'll be such a shame!

Caroline York will sing duets
With Chris or Mary Jo — they're her best bets!

Joseph, you're slow, but oh! so sure,
As a chemist you'd make dirty water pure.

Mollie I see balancing books for businessmen,
In this position, she'll do the best she can.

Carl James will drive taxis for the Whiteway,
A job he must do every single day.

Charlie, you're on the road to fame,
Pro-football is a very fine game.

Neil McDowell will paint pictures galore,
I predict they'll be seen from shore to shore.

Prescriptions will always constitute people's needs,
Here druggist, Ollis Parker, will do his good deeds.

When a valve in the faucet tends to slip,
Jack Wyatt will be the plumber to stop the drip.

There's always a demand for good secretaries,
Rosie will one be until she marries.

Dallas, Uncle Sam is calling to you - - - -
Serve him well and your duty do.

On our Jim Abbott we can rely - - - -
I dub him a member of the FBI.

There's a career Charles Hawkins can't refuse,
He will be editor of the daily news.

As to her career Conchita has not hinted,
But with Phil for a husband, she'll be contented.

Mary Chris as a music teacher in a public school,
Will combine music with the golden rule.

Interior decorating as a career is exciting,
And Kathleen thinks it also inviting.

A housewife is what Joretta wants to be,
Maybe she'll coach basketball all for free.

No one thinks Dan will go to the bad - - - -
He'll probably write operas like his Dad.

For Joan Reno we can hardly say,
Perhaps Mrs. Neil Rhymer some day?

When we buy groceries at the Dixie Store,
There'll be R. V. managing the floor.

In some opera house you'll find Mary Jo singing,
And throughout the house applause will be ringing.

If the store's Spud's, he's out of his mind,
"Girtie's and Spud's Grocery" — that we'll find!

Judy will be modeling duds on first floor,
Of some large and exclusive department store.

Linda will be selling much jewelry and rings,
And bracelets, and earrings, and many fine things.

Billy Jo drives a bus from September 'till May - - - -
He'll drive a Blue Ridge Truck — with much more pay.

Mack is president of everything and really rates —
Someday he may be president of the United States.

Benny will be found upon the stage
Reciting script from the printed page.

Newlyweds all need to build a home —
Just apply to Carleson at the Building & Loan.

Stanley, I know not what to say to you —
I think you'd be cute in Navy blue.

Henry, from being an electrical engineer you'll not be blocked,
But gracious! My! Goodness! Don't get shocked!

Sue, You've been a good clerk in the store,
Twenty years from now you'll be the owner of four!

Some lucky girl will lend charm
To Larry's 100,000 acre farm.

Carlyle, we're leaving it up to you
To invent blue roses and purple daisies too.

La Rue has pearly teeth — to him I'll say,
You'll be a dentist to earn your pay.

You can't judge people by the way they look —
I do think Joan Sharpe would make a fine cook!

Sarah is just super at sewing fine dresses,
If she's your seamstress — your clothes won't be Messes.

Someone must operate the trains — don't you fear!
I see Robert Earl as a good engineer.

If you need a lawyer to do your pleading,
Reeves is the man you'll be needing!

Yvonne as a secretary, I cannot see - -
I believe she'll be happier with a baby on her knee.

Gene Mackey will be president of a great firm,
Which will make matches both ends to burn.

As an advertising agent, George is your man,
If he can't sell your products, nobody can!

Pat Hipps desires a nurse to be - - she's too shy!
I see her teaching Speech in Canton High!

Gene Devlin's ambition is high in the sky,
For you see an airplane is what he'll fly!

Every quartet needs accompanying on the piano,
Wilma will also be the leading soprano.

As a photographer, Bill Sutton will be tops,
He will take pictures of our farmer's crops.

Neil Rhymer will clip hair so close to the head
That his innocent victims will think they have shed.

If in twenty years the Army comes home,
Wilene will settle down, no more to roam.

And Frances Fisher to her pupils dear,
Will flog and nag with nary a tear.

Bobby Cogburn will be a raiser of cattle,
All the night, Hilton, the rustler, he'll battle.

And hear classmates, don't cut trees from the woods,
Because forester Branson will catch you with the goods.

To Glenna and Jackie who's each got a mate —
Your future's been mapped for you by fate.

And Marvin, best wishes to you I give --
A physical ed director as sure as you live!

Barry's spare time will all be filled
Writing epitaphs for patients he has killed.

Joan Fincher as a scheming medical technician,
Will latch on to some unsuspecting physician.

And people all around will walk for miles
For Marie to dress their hair in the latest styles.

Here's a trest if you're a hillbilly fan,
On the Grand Ole Opera, Rex's your man!

Some people may think Bill Owen half mad,
But he'll preach many sermons so long and sad.

Patsy Ruth will look at you while you earn your million,
She won't be your secretary until you get your trillion.

There is room for girls in the Army Air Force,
That's where Patsy Coleman will be, of course.

If you need saving from the hearse - - -
Remember Patsy is making a nurse.

After seeing Bob Miller parade in the play,
I can see him on the screen some day.

Charles Banks will cure your cats and dogs,
Mice, sheep, and cows, and goats, and hogs.

To fill the need for a comedian on television —
That's the way Phillip will earn his million.

Vernon already in the role of a married man
Will work for Champion and earn all he can.

All you women high prices must pay,
If you buy the best dresses — designed by Kay.

If you let Patrolman Brookshire catch you speeding,
Before a lawyer you'll surely be pleading.

An authoress is needed to write a best seller,
Arlene can do this before marrying her feller!

As you enter a hospital corridor so quiet,
There's Lorene all starched up in white.

Now dear classmates, don't take your career as a joke,
As for myself, I won't prophecy, I can only hope!

TEACHERS SPEAK

HUH?

It's a grand old school,
And we'll follow it through,
We will fight for the red and black;
We're from Canton High--
See our colors fly!
Canton is here to be seen.
So we'll give three cheers
Rah! Rah! Rah!
For the four luck years,
And the ones who have stood the test.
Should old acquaintances be forgot?
Keep your eye on the C. H. S.
